ELECTION SUPPLIES

Hitech General Trading Company provides a variety of election supplies, the most important of which are ballot papers with the best security required for the success of elections, which have been printed and supplied to many independent high electoral commissions. It also supplies other supplies, including ballot boxes, voting booths, seals, sets, and other essential equipment for effective election campaigns. The company emphasizes the importance of choosing reliable election suppliers based on factors such as security, suitability, transportation, handling, and cost.

SURVEILLANCE SYSTEM FOR POLLING STATION

The surveillance system at polling stations includes wall-mounted cameras with high-definition lenses and infrared technology for clear recordings in low-light. Trained personnel monitor live feeds from a centralized station to ensure security. Recorded footage is securely stored in the cloud for easy access in case of incidents. This system provides a reliable security solution for voters and election officials during the voting process.
